This section is about the R.I.S.E. (Representation, Inclusion, Service, Education) Award.

Purpose: Honor and support diverse arts education voices in Washington state. Build a dynamic cohort representative of the state's population.

Action: Through the Teaching Artists R.I.S.E. Award, TAT Lab will reserve at least four tuition-free spots for cohort members who represent identity groups who have been historically underrepresented in TAT Lab.

R.I.S.E. Award nominees should:

Identify as a member of and/or work directly with one or more of these communities:

- Black, Indigenous, and People of Color communities
- LGBTQIA+ communities
- People with disabilities
- Multilingual or English Language Learner (ELL) communities
- Immigrant and refugee communities
- Rural communities
- Communities outside King and Pierce counties

And be recognized within their arts/education community as an important emerging voice.

16. If you would like to be considered for the TAT Lab Core R.I.S.E. Award, please tell us how you and your work are a good fit for this award. Please tell us about yourself, and your teaching. How do you empower youth and children through arts learning? How do you engage communities through your work?

* 17. TAT Lab Core serves as a statewide community of practice; it is important to this model that all members of the cohort participate fully, which means attending all of the sessions as well as completing reading and learning plan development assignments.

The 2021-2022 Core Program meets for a total of 30 session hours between December 2021-June 1, 2022, with an additional 1-3 hours per month of independent work. Some sessions will meet as a full cohort (up to 30 participants) and some will meet as subcohorts (7-8 participants).

See calendar view of the schedule here.

Subcohort- virtual (Zoom)

Weeks of:

December 6-10, 2021

January 10-14, 2022

March 7-11, 2022

2 hours on one day in each of the 3 listed weeks. If accepted, you will have an opportunity to indicate your availability for subcohort session times.

Whole cohort virtual (Zoom)

December 15, 2021, 4:00-7:00pm

February 9, 2022, 4:00-7:00pm

February 16, 2022, 4:00-7:00pm

June 1, 2022, 4:00-8:00pm

Whole cohort hybrid gathering

April 23 & 24, 2022

9:30am-3:30pm

If health and safety guidelines allow for in-person gathering, this will include both in-person and virtual access. Vaccination and/or testing protocols will be in place to attend in-person. Travel support will be available for participants traveling from outside King County. In-person location will be in Seattle. More details about travel support to come. Lunch and snacks will be provided to in-person attendees. If guidelines do not allow in-person gathering, these will be all virtual sessions.

1:1 mentor coaching (Zoom)

Approx. 45 minutes, May 2022

will be scheduled with your faculty mentor

I have reviewed the dates and times, and I feel confident that I would be able to commit to full participation.

I have reviewed the dates and times, and have some possible schedule conflicts or other concerns about my ability to fully participate.

Please explain any possible conflicts or concerns.

* 18. Participant tuition for this program is $500. Tuition income and support from our funders help us offer tuition at a significant reduction to actual cost, sustain our programming, and pay presenters an adequate rate. TAT Lab also strives towards equity and we value participants regardless of their ability to pay.

In order to increase affordability, we offer a payment plan option, which you can request upon acceptance into TAT Lab.

We also offer scholarship assistance based on applicants' financial circumstances and our guidelines for application evaluation as outlined here.

Considering the value of this training for your work, and your ability to pay, would you require a scholarship in order to participate? Answering "yes" will NOT affect acceptance decisions.

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No
- ☐ Maybe

TAT Lab Core Application 2021-22

To be considered for a full or partial scholarship, please answer the following questions.

19. What is your combined annual household income from all sources?

Please submit two items that share more about who you are as a teaching artist and/or arts educator. We know there are many ways to share about your experience. Examples of an item you could choose to share include:

- a bio/resume that is focused on your work in arts education
- a sample learning plan
- a link to a video of you teaching
- a link to a video of you talking about your teaching experience
- a link to a website that shares about your work in arts education
- photos/videos of student work created in your classes with a description of the activity and class setting
- colleague or collaborator testimonial
- whatever you think would give us a sense of who you are and why TAT Lab would be a great fit for you!

The following types of files are supported: PDF, DOC, DOCX, PNG, JPG, JPEG, and GIF. If you have website, or a link to a video, you may save the link in a DOC file and upload it here.

If you are having technical difficulties, please email TATLab@PNB.org.

* 24. Some TAT Lab events may be recorded for grant reporting and/or promotional materials via screenshot or video. TAT Lab staff will always announce any recording and provide opportunities to opt out (turn off/hide video) prior to recording. Having your video/camera/voice on signifies your permission to use your image for TAT Lab communications.

☐ I understand.

* 25. TAT Lab programs are courageous spaces that invite all arts educators working in Washington state regardless of race or ethnicity, gender and gender expression, ability/disability, age, sexual orientation, religion, or any other identities to be their true selves.

☐ As I enter this space with my unique mix of identities and privileges, I will respectfully engage in TAT Lab with the health and the growth of the community in mind.

26. TAT Lab requests, but does not require, applicants to let us know their race and/or ethnicity in order to hold ourselves accountable to serving teaching artists and arts educators of color.

Please use your own words to describe your race, ethnicity, heritage or cultural identity. (optional)
